After Wettest July, Rainfall at 6% Below Average in Aug

Experts raise concerns over yield of pulses and spices in case of prolonged dry spell

Shambhavi Anand @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: From being 5% higher than the long period average (LPA), rainfall has gone down to 6% below LPA in the last two weeks of August in India. While soil moisture and reservoir levels have risen during July and sowing is almost over, agricultural experts are concerned about the yield of some crops such as pulses and spices in case a prolonged dry spell sets in during the monsoon season. that works with over a million farmers across the country. "The high temperature and dryness are bringing the crops, especially pulses, under stress affecting their height and density which could in turn affect the yield," he added. As is, the sowing of pulses soon during the kharif season has gone over 100 lakh hectares till August. It this year from 122.77 lakh hectares last year. Countrywide rainfall in the first half of August has been 26% below LPA, with monsoon remaining weak throughout the period. While the rainfall over northwestern India is 10% more than the LPA, the other three regions of east and northeast, central India and southern peninsula have a deficiency of 20%, 4% and 15%, respectively. On August 17, 66% of the hill stations in the country faced a dry spell, while 11% of the areas reported a deficit of 10% or more, according to IMD's data.

Tomato Prices may Fall Below ₹100/kg

Wholesale rates of kitchen staple dip more than 30% at leading tomato market in Maharashtra

Jayashree Shinde @timesgroup.com

Pune: Tomatoes may soon be available for less than ₹100/kg at the local vegetable markets as the wholesale rates of the kitchen staple have fallen by more than 30% in a leading tomato market in Maharashtra which supports supplies during the August-December period. The retail prices of vegetables in the consumption centres are usually double the wholesale rates or even higher, mainly due to the influx of costs like transportation, market handling charges, commission of middlemen and the overall margin. Officials said the arrival of tomatoes at the Pimpri-Chinchwad market in Nashik, Maharashtra, is expected to be six times during the past week, while other markets like Bengaluru have also started seeing more arrivals. There are a few pockets like Narayana, Nashik, Bengaluru and the foothills of the Himalayas which were the traditional sources of supplies to the country during the monsoon season. The Nashik belt feeds tomatoes to the country in the August to December period. The average price of tomatoes at the Pimpri-Chinchwad market on Wednesday was ₹75/kg, while the highest price was ₹15/kg. A week ago on August 11, the average price was ₹77/kg, while the highest price was ₹97/kg. In the case of onions, the average rate at the Pimpri-Chinchwad market was ₹20.50/kg on Wednesday while the highest rate was ₹20.64/kg. Average, the average rate of onions was ₹26.50/kg while the highest rate was ₹26.56/kg. Tomato prices will continue to decline in the coming days as arrivals are rising fast," said Minaz Sheikh, a wholesale trader of tomatoes and onions in Maharashtra. "The arrival has increased not only in Nashik but also in Bengaluru."

poligon (lowest market rate was ₹20.50/kg on Wednesday while the highest rate was ₹20.64/kg. Average, the average rate of onions was ₹26.50/kg while the highest rate was ₹26.56/kg. Tomato prices will continue to decline in the coming days as arrivals are rising fast," said Minaz Sheikh, a wholesale trader of tomatoes and onions in Maharashtra. "The arrival has increased not only in Nashik but also in Bengaluru."

In Delhi, the prices of tomatoes coming from the Pimpri-Chinchwad market have declined from this year's high of ₹4,000 per crate of 38.50 kg to around ₹2,000 per crate, said traders. However, traders and wholesale market officials said onion arrivals are declining as farmers have started holding the crop in expectation of price appreciation. "The delay in transplanting the onion in Nashik district led to insufficient rainfall in the area, which is also supporting price prices."

पहिल्या दोन सेटमध्ये एकदाच अचूकता; पण त्यानंतरच्या दोन सेटमध्ये सहा वेळा दहा गुणांचा वेध

■ भारतीयंचे अखेरच्या दोन सेटमध्ये दोनदा सात गुण तरीही विजय

खाना पुत्रांपर्यंत होता. याचा फायदा घेऊन प्रथम पुन्हा तिच्या पायाची पकड घेऊन आणखी दोन गुण मिळवले. लॉगने प्रियाला मॅटबाहेर ढकलण्याचा आटोकाट प्रयत्न केला. यानंतर दोन्ही कुस्तीगिरांनी वेळ काढण्याचा प्रयत्न केला. पहिल्या तीन मिनिटांनंतर प्रिया ४-० ने आघाडी घेतली होती.

प्रियाच्या तुलनेत तिच्या प्रतिस्पर्धीची उंची चांगली होती. मात्र, प्रियाने तिला याचा फायदा घेऊ दिला

उपाय करत आला. पुढील ११-० असून सहज विजय मिळवला. आता तिचे विजेतेपदासाठी युकेनच्या मारिया येफ्रेमोवाविरुद्ध लढत होईल. तिने अंतिम लढतीपूर्वी केवळ दोन गुण गमावले आहेत. पंधलने सुरुवातीला पोलंडच्या निकोला मोनिका बिस्निष्काला अवघ्या ६८ सेकंदांत नमवले. तिने चीनच्या झूएजिंग लिआंगचाही सहज पराभव केला.
