Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Arvind Yadav embarked on his professional journey with IndianOil in 2003 as a Sports Officer. Over the years, he transitioned seamlessly into various roles within the marketing sector, with each experience contributing significantly to his personal and professional growth. Currently posted as Sr Mgr (ES), Northern Region Office, he feels the corporation has played a pivotal role in his professional life by providing unwavering support and fostering an environment conducive to professional development.

I am deeply grateful to IndianOil for its unwavering support throughout my journey. I truly appreciate IndianOil's commitment to excellence, which has played a pivotal role in shaping not just my career but also my personal development. The corporation's dedication to promoting sports has not only fostered positivity but also contributed significantly to the overall development of our nation.
