Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Joining IndianOil in January 2002, Ms Kasturi began her journey at the Siliguri terminal, gaining valuable experience in operations, particularly in fuel supply through tank lorries. Progressing to the role of Customer Relations Officer at the Siliguri Area Office, she further refined her skills in customer engagement. Currently serving as AM (Plant) at the Rangpo Bottling Plant since 2021, Ms Kasturi continues to contribute to operational excellence. Each step in her journey has been a learning experience, shaping her both professionally and personally.

IndianOil has nurtured my aspirations, enabling me to excel in table tennis and within the organisation. The corporation instilled in me a sense of dedication and sincerity in carrying out my duties. I am grateful to my seniors for their guidance, peers for their steadfast support, and juniors for their cooperation, both professionally and personally.
