Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Transitioning seamlessly from the cricket field to the corporate arena, Mr Mohamed Iqbal Siddiqui now serves as DGM (LPG-Sales) at Aurangabad Indane Divisional Office. As a Match Referee for the Board of Cricket Control in India (BCCI), he bridges the worlds of sports and corporate affairs effortlessly. His role extends beyond the boundary, utilising his expertise to navigate through administrative intricacies, project approvals, and statutory licenses, enriching the corporation with his multifaceted skills.

From day one when I joined IndianOil in 1993 and till date, I have been given a free hand to concentrate on my game & chase dreams, because of which I was able to represent Indian Test Team under Captain Saurav Ganguly in 2001 against England... Currently I am able to travel the length & breadth of country to officiate as a Match Referee. All this was possible only due to IndianOil's top management's keen interest in not only recruiting the sports personnel in the Corporation but also provide them the due respect once their active sports career ends... A big thanks to IndianOil for understanding sports persons.
