Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Mr Nitin's transition from hockey field to the corporate sphere in 2003 marked the beginning of his illustrious career at IndianOil. Initially joining as a Sports Officer Grade 'A', he seamlessly transitioned into the mainstream in 2019. His current role as the head of the Medical Section at the Northern Regional Office involves overseeing various critical functions, including processing medical bills, organising health and blood donation camps, coordinating hospital treatments, and managing the PRMS portal for retired employees. Under the guidance of his superiors, Mr Nitin has shown exceptional adaptability, mastering the nuances of his role and demonstrating a commitment to excellence in serving both current and retired employees.

Coming from a middle-class background, where my father was a government employee, IndianOil has been a pillar of stability and support in my life. Over these 16 rewarding years, the financial security and support provided by the company have been instrumental in allowing me to flourish in my sport. Participating in prestigious tournaments and gaining recognition became feasible, thanks to IndianOil's unwavering support. I am deeply grateful to IndianOil for playing such a pivotal role in my journey, and I extend my heartfelt thanks to the organisation for their consistent encouragement and support.
